

Kathy Lilis

Be passionate about your work and make a difference

Kathy has dedicated her life to supporting women and their children find safety and support during and after experiencing domestic and family violence. She has built a 24 year career in the sector and is now the program manager of the Eastern Adelaide Domestic Violence Services, a program of Women's Safety Services SA.

Learn from what has happened in your life, build confidence in yourself and your abilities and keep moving forward

To see the full stories visit: www.campbelltown.sa.gov.au/iwd