

Liz Milner

Everyone needs a wild place

Liz has travelled the world and developed a passion for protecting native flora and fauna. She was awarded the Australian Government Individual Landcarer Award in 2021 for South Australia which acknowledged her as 'one of the most highly regarded volunteers in the region producing remarkable bushcare work that spans over 1,464 ha of high quality native bushland, all the while engaging encouraging and inspiring the community'. She has mentored, educated and provided inspiration to other volunteers and community members including school children, and together with environmental professionals, improved habitat areas which are critical refuges for threatened flora and fauna.

Being in nature nourishes my soul
