

Mia Fantasia-Copley

Small acts of kindness change the world

Mia is an active community volunteer and office manager of the Turkindi organisation, the Aboriginal Information Network of SA. Mia has been involved with this group since its inception in 2000 sending out daily emails to connect, inform and support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to find meaningful employment, training or information. She is actively involved in community events and takes great joy in seeing her granddaughter leading Welcome to Country at community events and take pride in her cultural heritage.
