Phone in Days and Confirmation

With the increase of bookings each month, please give the team one week from 'phone in day' to get back to you with confirmation of bookings.

Please have this program available when you receive your confirmation call, to mark if you have been accepted or placed on the waitlist.

- Bookings can be made for a maximum of 4 people
- Bookings must be made on the date of the 'Phone in Day', if you are unavailable on that day please ask someone else to call on your behalf.

Clients and facilitators are asked not to attend programs if they:

Clients and Facilitators are asked not to attend programs if they have any symptoms of illness, including cold or flu-like symptoms (e.g. cough, shortness of breath, sore throat, runny nose or nasal congestion).

Important Information

Please Read

- Due to a significant increase in late cancellations, prepayment is now required for all outings. Once you receive confirmation of your monthly programs, payment for all outings in the following month must be made in advance. Clients can pay by phone using a bank card, in person at the council office, or via BPAY.
- We know you love to support our Social Program, but please check your diaries before booking to avoid having to cancel. If you need to cancel, please call 8366 9251 to advise immediately. If we cannot fill your seat for any prepaid events, you will not be eligible for a refund or credit.
- For the safety of our volunteers, participants attending a bus trip outing must be able to get on and off the bus independently, please also bring your walker or walking stick if you require one.
- Should your health or mobility change, please contact the Home Support Program staff to discuss other activities and support services available to you.

Christmas in July – Bringing Our Community Together

In July our amazing volunteer hosts welcomed local community members who live on their own into their homes for a festive Christmas in July lunch filled with delicious food, laughter, and great conversation.

A heartfelt thank you to Rhonda Amber, Sue Croser, Peter and Kaye Sullivan, Frank Geracitano and Glenda Sherwin-Lane for your generosity, kindness, and hospitality. Your willingness to give your time, open your homes, and prepare these special meals has created memories that will be cherished and build a more connected and caring community.
