

Reeva Brice

Following opportunities and constantly learning

Reeva has more than 40 years' experience in the natural therapies industry as a remedial and sports masseur, yoga instructor, Principal of her own training college and as a WEA tutor. Reeva has constantly advanced her learning by reading, (a classic bookworm) which helped her to complete matriculation as a mature student, and by attending evening and day workshops, forums and conferences on health, yoga, complementary therapies and business.

In 2014 Reeva was appointed to the COTA Policy Council and since 2017 has been their representative on the Australian Gas Infrastructure SA Reference Group. For the last 17 years she has been an influencer of modern ageing through COTA SA's The Plug-in. Reeva was a member of the Campbelltown Council's Ageing Well Advisory Committee from 2016 to 2023.

There are no such words as I can't, because you CAN

To see the full stories visit: www.campbelltown.sa.gov.au/iwd

