Flavours of Campbelltown

In 2018 Council celebrated 150 Years. In 2023 Council continues to celebrate its food and diverse cultures from pre-settlement to today where many waves of migration have influenced the changing food culture in Campbelltown, enriching the cultural heritage and creating a unique blend of food experiences from a variety of different backgrounds.

This booklet has been produced over a number of years to recognise and promote some of the unique and high quality food and beverage businesses that operate in the City of Campbelltown and to highlight fantastic experiences such as the Moonlight Markets and Pizza Festival, that were built off the back of the Food Trail.

There are many tasting pleasures to be enjoyed by visiting these businesses, talking to their staff who share their stories, purchasing their goods and recommending them to your friends and families. The award-winning Flavours of Campbelltown Food Trail has something for everyone, with more experiences on the way.

Michael Keelan – Ambassador

It has been a great pleasure to be the Ambassador for the Flavours of Campbelltown Food Trail since 2012. Not only have I lived within the region, I have a great passion for food and the experience it provides. The Food Trail initiative by Campbelltown Council is a classic example of a council striving to support its businesses and local community by utilising its own skills, networks and opportunities to the advantage of others. From such a simple idea has evolved a program that is having a massive impact on the whole community with the attraction of visitors and new businesses alike to the Food Trail and associated events.

I urge you to take the time to visit all or any of the businesses listed in this booklet – take it from me, they are all delightful and unique in their products and experiences. This is a wonderful promotion of local businesses with amazing stories and events that I am proud to be associated with. I sincerely welcome each of the new business members and thank all those returning businesses for their contribution as active members helping shape the character of Campbelltown.

Regards

Michael

Café Va Bene

Owners: Lee Catania and Domenic Clemente

Café Va Bene is an authentic Italian café all about fantastic food, great service and real value for money.

Café Va Bene has served the Campbelltown community for over 20 years. It was established in 1994 as one of Adelaide's first large suburban cafés. They have recently undertaken refurbishments and offer a large outdoor dining area as well as private function and meeting rooms.

They offer an extensive menu - including freshly made juices, gluten free options and delectable desserts - and are constantly keeping an eye on new innovations to ensure their service and products keep up with current trends. Most menu items are available for take away or delivery so you can also enjoy that great taste in the comfort of your own home.

Catlin on Magill

Owners: Darryl Catlin

Catlin on Magill is a delightfully cosy venue with beautifully appointed spaces for you to kick back and relax. There's even a pool table for all to enjoy!

Catlin Wines are made in the Adelaide hills, sourced from premium South Australian vineyards in the Adelaide Hills and Clare Valley. Each wine is an expression of local terroir. With a preference for wild ferments and minimal intervention, each wine is a representation of what can be achieved from a single vineyard.

Pop into Catlin on Magill and enjoy their beautiful range of wines or some refreshing frothies that cleanse the palate. There's parking out back, and they welcome children and friendly dogs.

Continental Taralli Biscuits

Owners: John and Anna Viscione

Continental Taralli Biscuits is a South Australian family owned business specialising in Mediterranean savoury and sweet crackers and biscuits. For over 50 years, the Viscione family has been producing a gourmet range of artisan products that are available Australia wide. They are renowned for producing Taralli, Tarallini, Almond Bread and Biscotti.

They pride themselves on using quality and natural ingredients, sourced from local suppliers, and specialise in producing products that are free from preservatives, colourings, flavourings, animal fats and GMO ingredients. Their products are also oven baked, low in sugar, cholesterol free, yeast free, egg free, dairy free, vegetarian and a majority of them are also vegan.

Using recipes that date back to the early 1900s, owner and baker John Viscione was taught by his father the traditional way of making biscuits in his home town of San Martino VC Avellino, Italy. John migrated to South Australia in the late 1960s and continued his family traditions with the start-up of a small bakery from his home.

Today, John, his children and grandchildren continue to carry on the Viscione family tradition and their passion for food and produce over 15 specialty lines. The fusion of traditional Viscione baking methods, together with cutting edge technology, has helped their family business grow and deliver quality and tasty gourmet products consistently. Taste the difference today!

Authentic Italian Ice Cream

Gelato Bello

Owner: Marcus Nardone

Gelato Bello originated in the 1990s when its original owner returned home to Sicily, the authentic home of Italian gelati. He was so impressed by the quality and taste of the local gelati that he decided to bring the unique creamy authentic flavours and texture to Australia. Today that unique creamy authentic texture combined with fresh fruit, milk and cream sourced only from SA farms, quality Italian ingredients and flavours lives on at Gelato Bello.

Current owner, Marcus Nardone, bought Gelato Bello in 2022 and runs it as a family business, with the gelati made in Campbelltown and available at their retail outlet in Glynde.

Every month Gelato Bello releases a 'Flavour of the Month', which combines premium ingredients with innovative new flavour ideas to create a truly sublime and unique gelato experience.

There are around 40 flavours of gelati sold in cones, cups and take home tubs as well as 5 litre tubs for wholesale customers and 500ml tubs for supermarkets in South Australia and beyond.

Indigo Espresso Café

Owners: Mohammed and Shirin Riyaz Tai

Mohammed and his family came to Australia from India after 15 years in the United Arab Emirates. Whilst there, Mohammed worked in a variety of top hotels as an Indian chef. Now at Indigo Espresso Café, he has brought with him the right ingredients with an essence of hospitality to ensure that every meal experience is enjoyable for his customers.

Starting a café in a new country with no business experience personally was challenging. Establishing a customer base was slow to begin with but has grown steadily over time – Mohammed and his family are now very well known for their friendliness and exceptional customer service.

Indigo Espresso Café offers a diversity of culinary delights including Indian curries, popular Tandoori chicken wraps, other freshly made wraps, burgers, focaccias and not to forget the chicken cheese avocado flat grill, cakes and delicious coffee on offer. The café has seating for up to 30 people and also offers takeaway and catering options.

Johnny Biscotti

Owners: Bake'n'Serve Pty Ltd

Johnny Biscuit (rebranded from Bake'n'Serve) is a small family business that has proudly supported the local community for over ten years. It originated from the biscuiteers who operated as 'European Cakes & Gelati' during the 90s. Johnny Biscuit was established in 2007 to focus on perfecting the craft of premium, delectable continental biscuits using the freshest ingredients from local producers and growers.

Their biscuits are baked fresh daily at their factory in Hectorville. They operate on a wholesale basis, but are open for discounted factory direct sales and take orders for delightful biscuit platters for any occasion.

They pop-up at markets in the community throughout the year, and their unique biscuit range can be found at several local stores, greengrocers and supermarkets.

As traditionalists, their years of research, experience and technical knowledge has become their main ingredient to producing their continental range. It cultivates a premium assortment of European-style biscuits, including almond flakes, almond bread and almond crescents that will bring back the memory of 'that sweet moment' and have you longing for more.

Enjoy and experience their fine biscuits with your next coffee... each bite will have you coming back for more!

MERCATO

Mercato

Owners: John and Rosa Caporaso

The team at Mercato believe the old Italian proverb 'A tavola nessuno diventa vecchio' translated to 'At the table no one grows old', so much so that they have dedicated themselves to providing the best selection of local and imported Italian fine foods to customers and the community.

Mercato present local and Italian produce of quality, authenticity and consistency. Innovation and education is paramount to their message and staff endeavour to make visiting Mercato an experience in discovery. Their location in Campbelltown allows them to not only specialise in all things Italian but also express the fantastic local produce that South Australia produces.

Bar Mercato in collaboration with their kitchen offers a wide range of authentic Italian dishes for you to eat in store or to take home with you. In the bar, guests can taste traditional Italian fare in a casual and comfortable setting. Drawing inspiration from the cafés of Italy they offer both breakfast and lunch alongside coffee, traditional sweets and Italian beverages such as spritz, wine and amaro. In addition to this, you can purchase heat-and-serve meal options from their Deli made by their passionate kitchen team as well as have the opportunity to purchase everything that they make in store for your next catering function/corporate event.

Through their authentic, extensive collection of Vino, Grocery, Cheese, Antipasto and cured meats they bring a slice of "Italy in Adelaide" to everyone's table.

The Family Cook

Owner: Victoria Braithwaite

Victoria Braithwaite started The Family Cook to help families to eat well while juggling the demands of a busy life. Since 2017, the team has grown considerably, responding to need in the community for family friendly, home-style cooking made with premium, locally sourced ingredients.

"We know that everyone is starved of time and rather than slave away in the kitchen every night you'd love to just put your feet up and spend time doing what you love!" says Victoria. "Our ready-to-eat meals reheat in minutes, making meal time so much easier and enjoyable."

Each dish is prepared with the same love that you would give to the dish. Victoria explains that cooking with love means 'no compromises' and she believes that being motivated by heart, not profits is why customers regularly tell them that they love their meals! Quality is the foundation of The Family Cook. It's real food. So you can be guaranteed that all meals are made with free-range chicken & eggs, grass-fed beef, Australian fish, and the freshest vegetables and herbs.

Proudly an NDIS provider, The Family Cook makes eating quality, home style meals as accessible as possible to all South Australians.

The Rolling Pin Bakery and Patisserie

Owners: The Donnelly Family

The Rolling Pin began its story in 2013 when at age 21, Baker Philip Donnelly had just come home from a trip to France. After completing his apprenticeship in 2011, his dream had always been to own a bakery. With support from Peter and Suzanne Donnelly (Mum and Dad), they then opened their own family bakery, The Rolling Pin Bakery and Patisserie.

The Rolling Pin specialises in French influenced tarts, sweets, cakes and pastries. Using the freshest of local and native ingredients they craft a high quality sweet and pastry range. Their two signature products - the gluten free cheesecake and their own fresh Raspberry and Passion Fruit Crème tart - have been featured on Adelaide Metro Buses and hung from banners throughout the eastern suburbs.

Their savoury selection has proven to be an award-winning experience with slow cooked rump steak in all their pies, free-range chicken and organic produce and other ethically sourced ingredients in their range. Paying homage to Australian bakery favourites they put their own touch to a lot of old Aussie favourites bringing them into 2020. Along with their custom-roasted coffee 'Mountain Horse' from proudly South Australian coffee roasters Rio Coffee, they also make the finest hot chocolate with milk, white and dark chocolate imported from Belgium.

Over the last 8 years The Rolling Pin has expanded to include the famous 150 year old Port Adelaide Mayfair Bakery. Not only can you grab your favourite products from Magill but you will find their products throughout Adelaide and interstate at various wholesale cafés and restaurants.
